Paddlers will start at the Greevy Boat Launch in Historical Riverfront Park and paddle down river to the mouth of the Loyalsock Creek. A counter-clockwise turn will send you 3 miles up-river to Williamsport’s Market Street Bridge. The course splits for the downriver leg. Recreation classes will follow the main channel and river permitting, racing classes will take in the tight confines of the Sylvan Dell Gut. Use this lush technical section to increase your lead and lose that trailer or close in on the competition. Positioned several hundred yards downriver of the start/finish, the last buoy sets the stage for a final sprint to the finish line!
